TERMS OF ENTRY
FOR THE TRAIL-ROSSLAND 2026 BC WINTER GAMES (February 25-March 1, 2026)

Participants (athletes, coaches, and officials) in the Trail-Rossland 2026 BC Winter Games are bound by the BC Games Society Code of Conduct, the rules, regulations, and policies of the BC Games Society. This includes but is not limited to following the BC Games General Rules, their sport's technical package, and the principles of the Culture of the Games.

Exemplary conduct is expected of all Games participants. This is expected from the time Games participants board BC Games transportation (or arrive at the Games by their own transportation) until they return home. Re view the Expectations of Participants.

Participants at any BC Games are one of many outstanding athletes, coaches, and officials who will be involved in competition. It is important that each participant show Games volunteers and all other Games participants the same respect and treatment that they'd want done to them.

Any behaviour contrary to the BC Games Culture of the Games, or any violation or transgression of the BC Games Code of Conduct, rules, or policies by any participant in any sport will result in appropriate disciplinary action, which may include removal from the Games. Any participant subject to discipline resulting in their removal from the Games, will be responsible for covering all costs related to their travel home.

The actions of any participant may impact the inclusion of that sport in future BC Games.

Any damages to a BC Games venue or infrastructure due to the actions of a participant(s) will result in disciplinary action and/or financial restitution by the participant(s) involved and/or their Provincial Sport Organization.

During the Games or during travel to/from the Games, any Games participant, including athletes, head coaches, assistant coaches, mentor coaches, apprentice coaches, adult supervisors, officials, or any other participant attending the Games found to be under the influence of, or in possession of, drugs or alcohol, will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action.

Should any participant choose not to follow these rules, regulations, and policies, their actions may be reviewed and they may be disciplined under the BC Games Society Discipline Process, which includes participating in the process and may include being interviewed, as outlined.

By participating in the Games, all participants are agreeing to abide by the above conditions.

See the Parent/Guardian consent here.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK, WAIVER OF CLAIMS, AND RELEASE OF LIABILITY AGREEMENT
TRAIL-ROSSLAND 2026 BC WINTER GAMES (February 25-March 1, 2026)
PARTICIPANTS

This is a binding legal agreement.

1. This Agreement must be signed by the Participant and/or the Participant's parent/guardian (if applicable, when the Participant is younger than 19 years old) prior to participation and are not relying on any oral or written statements made by the Organization or their agents, whether in brochure or advertisement or in individual conversations, to agree to participate in the Activities.
2. The Participant acknowledges and agrees to the terms outlined in this document. When applicable, the Participant's parent/guardian acknowledges and agrees to the terms on behalf of the Participant and references in this document to the Participant agreeing to or acknowledging a risk or term is understood to be referring to the Participant's parent/guardian agreeing to or acknowledging the risk or term on behalf of the Participant.

ACTIVITIES

3. The Participant is voluntarily participating in the competitions, activities, programs, and services (collectively the "Activities") provided by, and/or in the events sponsored or organized by the BC Games Society and/or the Trail-Rossland 2026 BC Winter Games Society. The Activities may include but are not limited to event-specific services and programming, sport-specific competition(s), ceremonies and events, travel, and accommodation.
4. The Province of British Columbia and the BC Games Society and/or the Trail-Rossland 2026 BC Winter Games Society, and their respective directors, officers, committee members, members, employees, coaches, volunteers, officials, participants, agents, sponsors, owners/operators of the facility in which the Activities take place, and representatives (collectively the "Organization") are not responsible for any injury, personal injury, damage, property damage, expense, loss of income or loss of any kind suffered by a Participant during or as a result of the Activities and/or, when the Participant is younger than 19 years old, when caused by the negligence of the Organization.

RISKS

5. The Organization has a difficult task to ensure safety and it is not infallible. The Organization may be unaware of fitness or abilities of participants, may misjudge weather or environmental conditions, may give incomplete warnings or instructions, and the equipment being used might malfunction. The Activities have foreseeable and unforeseeable inherent risks, hazards, and dangers that no amount of care, caution or expertise can eliminate, including without limitation, the potential for serious bodily injury, permanent disability, paralysis, and loss of life. These inherent physical risks include:
  - a) Health: executing strenuous and demanding physical techniques; physical exertion; overexertion; stretching; dehydration; fatigue; cardiovascular workouts; rapid movements and stops; lack of fitness or conditioning; traumatic injury; sprains and fractures, spinal cord injuries, bacterial infections; rashes; and the transmission of communicable diseases, including viruses of all kinds, bacteria, parasites or other organisms or any mutation thereof
  - b) Premises: defective, dangerous, or unsafe condition of the facilities; falls; collisions with objects or barriers that are a part of the premises such as fences, poles and stands; dangerous, unsafe, or irregular conditions on the grass, ground, field, or other surfaces; extreme weather conditions; and travel to and from the premises
  - c) Use of equipment: mechanical failure of the equipment; negligent design or manufacture of the equipment; the provision of, or the failure by, the Organization to provide any warnings, directions, instructions, or guidance as to the use of the equipment; failure to wear safety or protective equipment; and failure to use or operate equipment within the Participant's own ability
  - d) Contact: contact with participants or volunteers, sports equipment, vehicles, or other persons; and other contact that may lead to serious bodily injury, including but not limited to concussions and/or other brain injury or serious spinal injury
  - e) Advice: negligent advice regarding the Activities
  - f) Ability: failing to act safely or within the Participant's own ability or within designated areas
  - g) Activities: the inherent risks of the Activities, including but not limited to being transported to and from the Activities; falling off a bus; being provided food; being trampled or jostled by crowds; and any sport-specific risks that may be present during the Activities
  - h) Conduct: the Participant's conduct and conduct of other persons including any physical altercation between other participating
6. Cyber. The Organization may offer or promote online programming (such as webinars, remote conferences, workshops, and online training) which have different foreseeable and unforeseeable risks than in-person programming. These risks include privacy breaches, hacking, technology malfunction, or damage.
7. Infectious and/or Communicable Disease. The Organization has put in place preventative measures to reduce the spread of communicable and infectious disease; however, the Organization cannot guarantee that the Participant will not become infected with a communicable or infectious disease. Further, participating in the Activities could increase the Participant's risk of contracting any contagious disease.
8. Infectious and/or Communicable Disease Protocol. The Organization may develop infectious and/or communicable disease protocols to which all participants must adhere. The Participant has reviewed any such protocols in place and, when applicable, responded to any questionnaire or compliance declaration provided to the Participant by the Organization. The Organization has the discretion to remove the Participant from the Activities if the Participant does not comply with the protocols.

TERMS

9. In consideration of the Organization allowing the Participant to participate in the Activities, the Participant agrees:
  - a) That the Participant's mental and physical condition is appropriate to participate in the Activities and the Participant (or the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) assumes all risks related to the Participant's mental and physical condition

- b) To comply with the rules and regulations for participation in the Activities, including but not limited to the Code of Conduct and the Culture of the Games statements and that should the Participant choose not to follow the rules, regulations, and policies of the Organization, their actions may be reviewed and they may be disciplined under the BC Games Society Discipline Process, which includes participating in the process and may involve being interviewed
- c) To comply with the rules of the facility or equipment
- d) That if the Participant observes an unusual significant hazard or risk, the Participant will remove themselves from participation and immediately bring their observations to a representative of the Organization
- e) The risks associated with the Activities are increased when the Participant is impaired and the Participant will not participate if impaired in any way
- f) That it is the Participant's (or the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) sole responsibility to assess whether any Activities are too difficult for the Participant. By the Participant commencing an Activity, the Participant (or the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) acknowledges and accepts the suitability and conditions of the Activity and the responsibility for their own safety
- g) That the Participant may be exposed to, or infected by, a communicable and/or infectious disease and such exposure may result in personal injury, illness, permanent disability, or death
- h) That the Participant (or the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) is responsible for choosing the Participant's safety or protective equipment and the secure fitting of that equipment
- i) That the Organization does not assume responsibility for loss of wages, or costs associated with medical, dental or hospital care for any injury or loss incurred during the, or as a result of participating in the Activities

PERSONAL AND REGISTRATION INFORMATION

10. The Participant (and the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) agrees:
  - a) That the Participant's registration information will be used to determine eligibility and to arrange liability insurance coverage to address any claims arising from participating in the Activities
  - b) That the Participant's name, address, email address, phone number, and/or image(s), including photograph, video, or other media, may be used in non-commercial promotion/development of the Organization or sport, which may include the provision of this information to the media, the Premier, the Minister responsible for the Games, members of the legislative assembly, local members of parliament, school principals, school district superintendents, local mayors, local municipal volunteer agency or department, and/or to BC Games Society sport partners, for the purpose of recognition, acknowledgement, informing of sport-related opportunities, and/or for commemorative materials made available for free or purchase
  - c) That the Organization will not be liable for any communication from a third-party group that receives the Participant's contact information from the Organization after the two-year period under Canadian Anti-Spam Legislation expires. The two-year period begins at the conclusion of the Trail-Rossland 2026 BC Winter Games.

ACTIVITIES STATUS

11. The Participant (and the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) agrees that the Organization has the discretion to cancel or modify the structure of any Activities due to a public health or safety issue, which may include removing specific disciplines or age groups from a competition, changing a competition format, or changing the manner in which individuals become eligible to participate.
12. The Participant (and the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) agrees that the Organization may implement and enforce guidelines for the management of communicable or infectious disease that may include adhering to protocols, signing declarations of compliance, or requiring that personal protective equipment be worn by Participants (and their parents/guardians, if applicable). The Organization has the discretion to remove any Participant (and their parents/guardians, if applicable) who does not comply with these conditions. When required, the Participant is responsible for providing their own personal protective equipment.
13. Negligence (for Participants 19 years old or older): The Organization may be negligent, which may include failure by the Organization to take reasonable steps to safeguard or protect the Participant from the risks, dangers and hazards associated with participation in the Activities.

DISCLAIMER

14. When the Participant is 19 years old or older, the Participant assumes all risks arising out of, associated with or related to, participation in the Activities and waives any and all claims that the Participant may have now or in the future against the Organization. The Participant, when 19 years old or older, accepts and fully assumes all such risks and possibility of personal injury, death, property damage, expense and related loss, including loss of income, resulting from participation in the Activities.
15. When the Participant is 19 years old or older, the Participant forever indemnifies and releases the Organization from any and all liability for any and all claims, demands, actions, damages (including direct, indirect, special and/or consequential), losses, actions, judgments, and costs (including legal fees) (collectively, the "Claims") which the Participant has or may have in the future, that might arise out of, result from, or relate to, participation in the Activities, even though such Claims may have been caused by any manner whatsoever, including but not limited to, the Organization's negligence, gross negligence, negligent rescue, omissions, carelessness, breach of contract and/or breach of any statutory duty of care of the Organization.
16. For all Participants. The Organization is not responsible or liable for any damage to the Participant's vehicle, property, or equipment that may occur as a result of the Activities. This Agreement is intended to be as broad and inclusive as is permitted by law of the British Columbia and if any portion thereof is held invalid, the balance shall continue in full legal force and effect. The Participant (or the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) acknowledges that this Agreement will be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of British Columbia.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

17. The Participant (and the Participant's parent/guardian, if applicable) acknowledges that they have read and understand this Agreement, that they have executed this Agreement voluntarily, and that this Agreement is to be binding upon themselves, their heirs, spouse, children, parents, guardians, next of kin, executors, administrators and legal or personal representatives. They further acknowledge that by signing this Agreement they have waived their right to maintain a lawsuit against the Organization on the basis of any claims from which they have released herein.
18. When the Participant is younger than 19 years old, the undersigned acknowledges and agrees that they are a parent/guardian of the Participant and have full legal responsibility for the decisions of the Participant.
